Risque Behavior At Last Meeting

I think we managed at least a dozen, maybe even a baker's dozen in attending members last meeting. It was also nice to see Kelly back as our waitress. She really appreciated the flowers we sent her while she was recuperating after surgery.

There were some erroneous theories as to what was inside the breading of the meal. Most were betting on bovine, and they proved right. It tasted all right, but it is always nice to be visually convinced of what you're eating, and as you may have deduced, the fact that there were bets placed, the flavor didn't convince some. There was no doubt about the mashed potato and carrots. The dessert was an excellent pecan filled pastry.

Marty Kimmel had traveled again, - to Cincinatti this time, where they spent the weekend with family. I think he had to pay a couple of bucks. (We may have to create a clip card for frequent travelers like Marty and Tom Quinlan.)

Tom Didas won three turkeys in some raffle. I don't know how much he got fined for that. There was considerable commotion, when it was discovered that President Pat was holding her hand on Tom's leg. She ended up paying, I know, and I think Tom did too.

George Smith had a very busy few weeks, so he couldn't attend, but he offered up an unprecedented $10. I guess you could consider them ten happy bucks. Thank you, George.

Sharon Vogt contributed a happy dollar, and so did Bob Oswald. Bob's was quite remarkable. He bowled a 270 last week. I know nothing about bowling, but judging from the rest of the club, this is almost professional bowlers' association, if there is such a thing. Congratulations!

Business

President Pat related to the club what a fantastic show the Perry Rotary club put on last week. She strongly recommended getting tickets for next year. They had reserved some of the best seats in the house for us.

A board meeting must be held as soon as possible, and next Tuesday 6:00 p.m. before the regular club meeting was selected. Separate invitations will be sent.

Again, we will have visitors next week. Eileen Feinman and some of the girls from the soccer team will come.

Sharon Vogt won the 50/50. Thanks for donating it to the club!
