Good Start To The New Year

Despite some nasty weather (at least relative to what we've had), we had 12 members and a guest, Jim Burns, attend last meeting.

The Miller House, very fittingly for the weather situation, served us a cup of chicken, noodle and vegetable soup. It was followed by grilled ham and scalloped potatoes with green beans on the side. The dessert was frosted chocolate cake.

Tom Quinlan had made a short trip to Florida, and he also had a birthday. After a respectable vocal celebration by the members, he was fined $5.

Art Traphagen had an anniversary. After consultation with Roy Robinson, it was determined to be his and Deanie's 56th. Wow! We pulled off another decent song for him, and I think he ended up paying two bucks. Congratulations!

Sharon Vogt had all daughters home for the Holidays, including from as far away as Japan. She was very happy to toss in the happy buck. That prompted President Pat to toss in one too for the same reason, except they didn't come from as far away.

Since I wasn't taking notes, I may have missed a few contributions.

Business

A district governor elect will stay with Deanie and Art on his way to California. I forgot, or perhaps Art didn't mention where he/she is from. Anyway, we shall have a joint meeting with the Dansville club on Monday the 22nd, it was decided after some polling of the members at the meeting. It will be a spouse meeting, and it will substitute for our regular meeting on the next day.

Tom Didas reported that we received the bill from CFFF, and the food came to a little over $1200. In addition to that, Tom had negotiated that we pay $300 for the boot fee in lieu of the customary 25% of the gross. After some discussion, it was decided to follow Tom's recommendation of paying a little extra since we did well. Art suggested a total of $2000, but didn't move so. Bob Radell finally moved that we send a total of $1800, thus increasing our contribution to nearly $600. Seconded by Bo, this motion carried unanimously.

After some research, the 50/50 was awarded to Art Traphagen, (Bob Radell wasn't sure whose ticket it was). Thanks Art for donating it back. Don't forget that we meet regularly Tuesday the 16th !
